

HMS (Halperin Consulting Group) is a leading IT consulting firm that specializes in the financial sector - banks, insurance carriers, investment houses and financial units in large and medium size corporations. HMS has over 20 years of experience in providing consulting services, application development and integration of a wide variety of computerized solutions, utilizing a team of 200 specialists in many different fields.

HMS provides its customers with a continuous business advantage in its fields of specialty with:

- A combination of deep understanding of the business activity of the client with proven experience in information technologies.
- Proven “end to end” delivery capabilities in complex projects, which enable a quality combination between the IT and the Business.
- A team of professional and experienced specialists who work in cooperation with the client.
- Methodologies and proven application methods combined with leading software solutions.

We provide services in the following fields

Strategic Consulting	Risk Management	Performance Management	IT Management
IT Strategy Consulting	Enterprise Risk Management (ERM)	Budgeting and Monitoring Systems	Business Continuity (DRP, BCP)
Core Banking Systems	GRC –Governance, Risk and Compliance	Financial Reports Consolidation	Information Security
Financial Instruments	Operational Risks	Profit Centers and Costing	Organizational Architecture and Process Management (EA)
Insurance and Long-Term Savings	Financial Risks	ERP Systems	Data Quality and Data Migration
Financial Markets	IT Risks		Project Portfolio Management (PPM)

Your peace of mind is our business – “A Tradition of Excellence”.

For further information please contact us

